1. This agreement is a binding and enforceable settlement contract and neither participant can change its mind at a later date without another written Agreement among the parties.
2. This agreement has been entered into freely by all of the undersigned.
3. This agreement shall be kept confidential and the terms herein shall not be disclosed by either party except to authorized officials or other officials responsible for implementing the agreement.
4. The terms of this agreement shall not establish any precedent, nor will the agreement be used as a basis by either party to seek or justify similar terms in any civil action or subsequent case.
5. The agreement does not constitute an admission of guilt, fault, or wrongdoing by either party. Both parties agree to the contents of this resolution solely in an effort to resolve the conflict, and this agreement should not be construed as an admission of discrimination or wrongdoing on the part of any party.
6. Reprisal action will not be taken against either party.
7. In the event that either party perceives that the other party has failed to comply with the terms of this agreement or that this agreement has been violated in any way, either party may contact the Agricultural Marketing Service (AMS) Alternative Resolution (AR) Program Manager.
